DEFINITIONS

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Students wishing to cancel or discontinue their participation in Montes HealthCare College may be entitled to a refund of certain monies paid to their enrolled program. Students shall notify the school in writing of the cancellation of their enrollment agreement and withdrawal from their enrolled program by submitting a "Notice of Cancellation". The letter must include the effective date of withdrawal and the reason for the withdrawal. The Notice of Cancellation may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Fax: 310-436-7711 | Email: Info@MontesHCC.com

Mail: 555 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., Ste. 108, Gardena, CA 90248

If the Notice of Cancellation is received by mail, the postage date indicated on the envelope will serve as the effective date of Notice of Cancellation. If received by fax or email, the date indicated on the header of the fax or email will serve as the effective date of cancellation.

If a student fails to submit a Notice of Cancellation and chooses not to continue attending regularly scheduled class sessions, the student is considered to still be enrolled in his or her respective program up to 14 calendar days after the date of last attendance. In these cases where no communication from the student is received, the effective date of cancellation is 14 calendar days after the date of last attendance.

Students have a right to cancel and receive a full refund of all amounts paid, excluding up to $250 of the Registration Fee, if the Notice of Cancellation is submitted through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh (7) day after enrollment, whichever, is later.

Students who submit a Notice of Cancellation where the effective date of cancellation indicates that the term of enrollment is 60% or less of the published program term may be entitled to a pro rata refund of the amount paid. The amount of any refund will be based on the total amount of student payments compared to the sum of the Deposit Fee, STRF Fee, Physical / Digital Items Fee, Other Institutional Charges, and the Attendance Fee.

The Attendance Fee is calculated by taking the total cost of the program, divided by the number of days in the program, multiplied by the number of days the student attended, or was scheduled to attend, up to and including the effective date of cancellation. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed based on this pro rata calculation, will be refunded.

Should the total amount of student payments be less than the amount indicated by this pro rata calculation, the student will be held responsible for paying the remaining balance of the pro rata calculation amount.

Should a student submit a Notice of Cancellation where the effective date of cancellation indicates that the term of enrollment is more than 60% of the published program term, the student will not be entitled to a refund of any amount paid and will be responsible for paying the total cost of the program, including interest and fees if a payment plan agreement is in place.

All available refund amounts due to the student will be issued within thirty (30) days after the school receives the student's Notice of Cancellation.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

A student may also be asked to withdraw due to inappropriate student conduct, lack of attendance, or any other reason deemed necessary by the faculty and approved by the Campus President. The student will be notified in writing immediately following the determination of the student's non-continuation in the course and the aforementioned refund policies will apply.
